London Gets Few Dispatches and Those Unimportant

REPORTERS ARE LOCKED UP

London Practically Without News from the Seat of the War

London, Sept. 28.—The tightening of restrictions on the war correspondents in the rear of the allied armies in the last few days is reflected in the character of the news dispatches now reaching London. They are as few as during the earlier stages of the war.

The latest reports deal mainly with unimportant aspects of past events, descriptions of the German entrenched positions, the effect of the weather on the troops and isolated incidents, such as could be gathered in any war.

Three correspondents have just been released after having been imprisoned for three days. One of these is Harold Ashton of the Daily News and Leader, who has returned to London. He says that during his detention at French headquarters he was treated with kindness and courtesy, but was completely deprived of his liberty. Eventually he was handed over to the British general staff, who, upon Ashton's pleading his word to divulge nothing about the whereabouts of the French headquarters and the extremely delicate and important business with which to some extent he had become acquainted, allowed him to go.

Another released correspondent describes how he believed to be an absolutely unquestionable pass from a certain commanding officer was of no avail to prevent his arrest as an interloper into the zone of operations which was forbidden to journalists.

Other interlopers who were arrested were informed that they had blundered

When we began our career in the manufacture of roofing, we were only a modest little organization in a big competitive field. Today we manufacture a much greater quantity of ready-to-lay roofings and a much greater tonnage of building papers than any competitor in the world. This remarkable growth is the result of the universal satisfaction given by —the roofing that has become recognized as superior to all others in quality and durability.

Certain-teed

Quality Roofing Guaranteed

Certain-teed Roofing is guaranteed 5 years for 1-ply, 10 years for 2-ply, and 15 years for 3-ply, and this guarantee is backed by the assets of our three big mills.

COMPETITION.

The Kind That Wins.

In fair competition lies the true spirit of good business. There is no calling, no profession, or occupation, equal to it for absorbing interest and endless succession of exciting incidents. But it should be that kind of a healthy competition and friendly rivalry that does not strain neighborly relations. On the contrary, it should tend to bring those men together who are engaged in a similar business for the purpose of free discussion and publicity of opinion.

Unfortunately, this does not often occur. Men engaged in a like business sometimes get too friendly, combine their interests, and form a combination, contrary to the laws of the realm.

Others enter into a bitter personal conflict with each other, endeavoring with might and main to throw ignominy upon, and disrepute for the house of their competitors and their goods.

The intensity of the competitive struggle is subject to a great deal of variation. At times it may be characterized as cut-throat, where the slashing of prices has for its object the elimination of one or more of the contestants. Each competitor is confronted by the ever-present danger that if his service is poor, or the quality of his goods is not up to the standard, some other house of business will outstrip him. But the house that considers money high, and forms no more than a fair profit as the paramount factor in business, is the one that in the long run is sure to win.

Certain-teed Roofing is the highest quality possible to make. It is for sale by dealers everywhere at reasonable prices.

into the center of an important movement. They were put under military guard, but were allowed to go to a hotel to eat and sleep. At other times they were confined in a factory workshop.

Under the new restrictions a famine in important news is to be expected until the achievement of some decisive operations sets the correspondents free again.

Petrograd Paper Raises Fund for Monument to Rheims Cathedral Attack.

Petrograd, via Bordeaux, Sept. 28.—The Novoye Vremya has opened a subscription to raise a monument to Rheims in order to commemorate the bombardment of the cathedral.

SIR JOHN FRENCH SHOPS FOR RUM

Gets Four Bottles of the Kind He Likes and Some Other Wet Goods.

Paris, Sept. 28.—Field Marshal Sir John French, the British commander-in-chief, paid a flying visit to Paris yesterday. One of his minor objects was to obtain a supply of groceries.

An English woman who happened to be in the shop where the field marshal's aide was buying the stores acted as interpreter. Among the purchases made by the aide were 24 bottles of whiskey, four bottles of rum (the latter being for the special use of the field marshal), tea, coffee and canned goods.

The total bill for the field marshal's purchases was $56.

WOMEN NURSES KILLED.

Seven Lost Their Lives During Bombardment of Rheims.

Paris, Sept. 28.—Announcement was made Saturday by the French Society for the Assistance of the Wounded that seven nurses had been killed and two wounded while on hospital duty during the bombardment of Rheims.

Of the seven killed, five were members of a religious order. The others and the wounded were young graduate nurses.

Announcements of the deaths of women while caring for the wounded at the front are made every day.

PROTESTS TO WILSON OF BOMB DROPPING

Burgomaster of Ostend Sends Emphatic Statement Through American Consul.

London, Sept. 28.—The Times prints the following dispatch from its Ostend correspondent:

"The burgomaster has addressed, through the American consul here, an energetic protest to President Wilson against the action of the Germans in dropping bombs on Ostend, which is described as an unjustifiable violation of the rights of the people.

"The consul is telegraphing the protest to-night."

ITALY EXPECTED TO JOIN ALLIES

Excuse Is Not Yet Sufficient, Is Belief in London, but Justification Will Be Afforded Later.

London, Sept. 28.—Notwithstanding Winston Spencer Churchill's statement of reasons why Italy should enter the war on the side of the allies, it is known in authoritative quarters that Italy is not ready to act. Still, there are reasons for believing that Italy, at the opportune time, will be found fighting with the allies.

Officially, the British government is doing nothing, as it does not wish to place itself in the position of dragging Italy into the conflict. It is recognized that, at present, Italy's excuse would be territorial advantage, to be gained through Austria's weakened position. It is expected, however, that better justification will be afforded and that then Italy will strike. Meantime, the allies are not complaining at Italy's torpid neutrality. They are inclined instead to recount what might have been the position had Italy thrown in her lot with Germany and Austria.

Turkey's disposition is also being awaited. Observers here think that Germany has overdone her efforts in Constantinople, as she is believed here to have done in America, and in Turkey there is reported to be now a revulsion of sentiment which, at one time, leaned decidedly toward the German cause.

It is believed now that the chance of Turkey's participating in the war is remote.

NO BUSINESS SLUMP, BRITAIN DECLARES

Embassy at Washington States Number of Unemployed in England Decreases.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 28.—Tales of commercial depression in Great Britain were denied in a statement issued by the British embassy yesterday. The number of unemployed in England is steadily decreasing, the embassy said. On the other hand, the statement intimates that the situation in Germany is becoming serious.

The statement adds:

"In view of the admissions which have appeared in the German press as to the unemployed, caused by the stoppage of exports owing to the command of the sea exercised by the British fleet, it is of interest to state that the unemployed statistics of the United Kingdom show a steady decrease of unemployed."

SCHOOL TEAM WAS VERY GOOD

Goddard Seminary's Baseball Material Showed Good Promise

DEFEATED BARRE BY SCORE OF 8 TO 3

Game Played in Poor Conditions and to Meagre Crowd

With weather decidedly more suitable for football, the Barre A. C. suffered defeat at the hands of the Goddard seminary team at Goddard campus Saturday afternoon by the score of 8 to 3. The game was played in the presence of but a mere handful of people and the frigid weather conditions allowed only the crudest of baseball. The Barre team secured a lead at the outset, but this was soon overcome by the seminary aggregation. After the fourth inning the Goddard team demonstrated its superiority and clearly outclassed the Barre lads. The features of the game were the pitching of Mendez, the Barre twirler, and Davidson of the Goddard team, the honors being in favor of the seminary. Mendez twirled excellent ball at the start of the game but wretched support caused defeat for the Barre twirler. Fowle was the chief contributor to the downfall of the Barre heavier by furnishing four inexcusable misplays.

The Barre team scored the first run in the initial inning. Tomasi was hit by a pitched ball. He then started to steal second base. The throw was high and he romped to third. Brown's throw was wild and Tomasi scored. A home run by J. Brown scored Barre's second run in the fourth inning. The Goddard team took the lead in the fourth by scoring four runs. Conors was passed. Keefe was also passed. An error by Johnston filled the sacks. Laird hit to Nute, who threw wild to third, and Conors scored. Willey hit to right field and scored Keefe and N. Brown. An error by Mendez allowed Goddard's fourth run. Witt led off the fifth with a single. He stole second and third and then counted on Laird's hit.

In the sixth inning King reached first on an error by Nute. He went to third on Davidson's sharp single and scored on Conors' rap to Johnston. The eighth inning brought two more runs for the Goddard team. King was safe on Willey's error. Hastie singled to right field and sent King to third. King scored on a passed ball by Fowle. Hastie, who had reached third, scored on an error by Fowle. Barre scored its last run in the ninth. Tomasi, who had been hit by a pitched ball, stole second. He scored on a hit by Nute.

One of the pleasing features of the game was the catching of Hastie, the former Peabody academy lad, who replaced Quinn behind the bat in the sixth inning. Quinn was forced to retire with a badly split hand. Hastie assumed the duties of backstopping and acquitted himself well. He should develop into one of the best catchers in years at Goddard. The Goddard team presented the greatest strength in years. The score:

VILLA HAS 50,000 MEN.

Quoted as Expecting No Trouble from President Wilson.

Nogales, Ariz., Sept. 28.—From Chihuahua, Mexico, comes a statement purporting to be from Gen. Villa in which he is quoted as follows:

"I don't want any more war or bloodshed. I want peace, but Carranza does not seem to want it that way. I regret that affairs should have so shaped themselves and have taken the only course left open to me. My men are entrained. I have plenty of arms and ammunition. I can put 50,000 men, mostly veterans, in the field within a week's time. I have nothing to fear."

"Carranza proved himself to be a liar and a despot. I have lost all patience with him. In the first place, he repudiated his promise to the people of Mexico. He has made an unwarranted attack upon Zapata, who had already given me his word that he would lay down his arms."

"Later, when I had decided to send troops to Sonora to restore peace to the turbulent state, Carranza criticized me severely, saying I had exceeded my authority. He even told me that he would order my men to return to their barracks. I telegraphed him that I would welcome an order from him to my men not to do anything I had ordered them to do. He has not replied to that message."

"Mexico must have peace. We all want peace, except possibly Carranza, the imbecile. I am sorry for many reasons that it has been necessary that I should assume the attitude I find myself in, but I feel it will turn out for the best."

"President Wilson will not bother us. The situation, as I see it, is this: 'President Wilson will be candidate for re-election. He realizes that his chances will be much better if as a result of his attitude a permanent peace has been established in Mexico. My course is calculated to give Mexico that sort of peace for which Mr. Wilson and his associates stand.'

"I know positively that we will meet no opposition from the United States government. Why, that government recently lifted the embargo on arms and ammunition."

FATHER AND SON KILLED.

Were on Way Home to Chicago from Summer Place in Vermont.

Wallington, Conn., Sept. 28.—F. G. Morse and son, H. J. Morse, of Chicago, who were returning to their home from their summer place in Newfane, Vt., in an automobile, were killed here Saturday by being thrown from the vehicle after it had skidded on the street car tracks and had been upset against a heap of loose sand. The younger man was instantly killed. The elder Morse died in a few minutes.

Identification of the bodies was made by the coroner and medical examiner, who found business cards and letters in the clothing. There were also directions to notify relatives in New York, New Jersey and Chicago, in case of accidents, and word was sent to New Jersey and reply received that the bodies would be immediately claimed.

10 CENT "CASCARETS"

STRAIGHTEN YOU UP

No Sick Headache, Bileous Stomach, Coated Tongue or Constipated Bowels by Morning.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and bad colds—turn them out to-night and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels, or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret to-night straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken.

MEXICO IN SERIOUS STATE.

Russian Minister's Pessimistic View as Expressed Saturday.

New York, Sept. 28.—Before sailing for Glasgow on his way to Petrograd aboard the Olympic of the White Star line, Alexandre de Stalevsky, Russian minister to Mexico, spoke freely Saturday on conditions in that country, as he said he had found them.

"Mexico is without a government and practically in a state of anarchy," he said. "With the exception of the state of Yucatan, where some semblance of order is still maintained, it is unsafe for a person to travel in Mexico. The bands of brigands that rob, burn and pillage as they please without interference from the authorities are the cause of all the trouble. There is no interference from the national authorities simply because there is no national government worth mentioning."

"The United States should not withdraw its troops from Vera Cruz. From what I was able to observe, there is no prospect that a stable government may be established in Mexico. Carranza is an able political chief, but he cannot compare with Villa as a leader of men. I am frank to state that conditions in Mexico yesterday are not one-half as good as they were during the Madero regime."

200 HORSES BURNED.

Stable Fire in Heart of New York's Tenement District.

New York, Sept. 28.—Fire discovered amid hay in a livery stable at 412 East 75th street, the heart of one of the most populous districts of New York City, drew half of Manhattan's fire-fighting apparatus to the scene Saturday. The stable, a brick building, was destroyed. Two hundred of the 350 horses housed in the building perished. One man, an attendant at the stable, was hurt by jumping two stories to the street.

Tenement houses, thickly populated, adjoined the burning building on each side. The tenements were quickly emptied and no one was injured.

TRADITION RECEIVING REPLIES FROM COLORADO OPERATIONS.

Washington, Sept. 28.—Replies of Colorado coal operators, other than the Colorado fuel and iron company, proposing a compromise on President Wilson's recent proposal for settlement of the strike, reached the White House Saturday. Inasmuch as the replies were sent before the president asked the operators to take up the question further, the president expects them to reconsider.

TRADITION RECEIVING REPLIES FROM COLORADO OPERATIONS.

Washington, Sept. 28.—President Wilson signed the trade commission bill. The members of the commission will not be appointed until the December session of Congress.

NO OBJECTION TO NEW REGISTRY.

In Cases Where Vessel Has Been Continuously American-Owned.

London, Sept. 28.—Instructions have been sent to all British consuls that the government has no objection to the transfer of ships from British to American registry in cases where they have been continuously American-owned, according to a statement Saturday at the British embassy in Washington. The instructions reached Rio Janeiro just after the steamer Robert Dollar, which had been held up pending a transfer of registry, had cleared.

MACEY SET AT LIBERTY.

American Was Held as a Suspect at Plymouth, Eng.

Denver, Col., Sept. 28.—James T. Macey of Denver, whose invalid wife committed suicide in London on August 8, after being driven out of an Antwerp hospital by the outbreak of hostilities, was Saturday set at liberty at Plymouth, where he had been held in custody as a suspect. Mr. Macey was arrested after his arrival in England from America. He went over in search of his mother-in-law and daughter, who were supposed to be stranded in Germany. He was detained by the British authorities, along with three other Americans, until his citizenship was proved and he had explained the object of his trip.

BROWN 24, NORWICH 0.

Norwich Made Many Fumbles—Bishop the Norwich Star.

Providence, R. I., Sept. 28.—Brown opened her football season Saturday by beating Norwich university 24 to 0. Both teams showed the usual early season lack of technique, and Norwich especially offended by frequent fumbles. The visitors' game was built around Bishop, their star fullback. Brown took matters easily, getting a score in each of the first two periods and 10 points in the last.

In the last two periods Coach Robinson sent in a flood of substitutes, practically every position on the team being filled by two, three and sometimes four men. Four quarterbacks took their turn at running the Brown team. Murphy, who started, was hurt on the first play, and Clark finished the half. Brown and Durgin also were given a chance.

Gordon's punts were a feature of the play, and his field goal from the 35-yard line against a heavy wind was a meritorious achievement. A second attempt from the 40-yard line missed by a narrow margin.

IN THE FIELD OF SPORTS

The Massachusetts Aggies this season again showed signs of strength against the powerful Dartmouth aggregation. Last season the Massachusetts lads held the green and it was only by a very brilliant spurt in the latter part of the game that enabled Dartmouth to win. This season the Aggies scored six points while the best Dartmouth team was on the field.

Dunn, the former Yale star, is now enrolled at Fordham college. He played on the Fordham team against Georgetown university Saturday. Fordham expected victory, but the outcome resulted in a scoreless tie. The Georgetown team sorely misses the services of Harry Costello this season. Last year Costello was considered one of the best team generals in the country.

Jack Leary, the Waltham, Mass., lad has been relegated to the bench for an indefinite period. Howard, a recruit, is playing the initial sack for the Browns.

Colby university showed strength on Saturday by defeating Holy Cross 17 to 0. Holy Cross was regarded as a factor among the minor colleges of New England. Fraser is once more playing with Colby.

The Norwich university football team must have been sorely disappointed over the outcome of the Brown game on Saturday. At Northfield the feeling was high that Norwich would triumph over the Providence lads. The score read, Brown 24, Norwich 0.

George Stallings says that he does not care to talk over the coming world's series with Philadelphia, but that the American leaguers will know that the Braves are in the game.

A St. Louis critic admits that the Athletics have it on the Braves in every department but the pitching. He considers the Boston trio of Rudolph, James and Tyler the greatest in the game today. The Boston fans are asserting that the Braves' infield compared favorably with the Mackmen quartet and also that the outfield is comparable.

Joseph and Maurice Shannon of the Asbury Park team of the Atlantic league have been signed by the Boston Red Sox. Both are infielders.

The Baltimore club won the International league pennant race which was closed on Saturday. The last week of the race started with the Baltimore, Buffalo and Rochester clubs fighting for first place. President Lamm of the Boston Red Sox owns the Baltimore club.

Trenkman, Princeton's center last season, has been declared eligible again and is now with the squad. Glick is playing a great game at quarter for the Tigers. Princeton plans to do a lot of forward passing this season. The opening game with Rutgers was won by only two touchdowns.

The 1914 football season was opened auspiciously on Saturday among the larger colleges. The Tufts college team ran up the largest score with 84 points against New Hampshire state. Harvard trimmed Bates 44 to 0. Yale found a somewhat stiffer proposition in the Maine lads.

The dispatch says that the Curia inquired into the matter through the Prussian ambassador at the Vatican and expressed satisfaction with the reply.

Lane announced that he would continue the contest in the state courts.
